No, you don't really want to know just how much more.

Legislative term limits did not survive a recent vote in the U. S. Congress. There was a lot of talk during campaign time, but after getting on the inside, the winning candidates decided it was a nice warm place to stay. Now the only term limit is that which is imposed by the voters. However, voters are overwhelmed with expensive campaigns from well healed incumbents and the circle starts Lampley, Dorothy Williams, Betty over again. Still ... we hold the key to the term limit issue.

Another birthday has rolled around for this writer. Tuesday is the official date, but that is also a long work day at our office. Therefore Heddy decided to pay her respects to the elderly on Monday evening. She left work a few minutes before me, which didn't sound any alarms because it isn't unusual for one of us to do that. When I stepped in the back door some time later, the stereo was playing one of my old Guy Lamborado LP's, candles were lit, balloons were hanging from the chandelier, a Easter motif centerpiece was on the table, a fancy table cloth covered the table and there was place mats with matching, real napkins on the table. The "good" company dishes were set ever so proper and the roast beef and carrots were delicious. That warm, fresh coconut pound cake capped the evening in a delightful manner. See, someone cares for me!

How old is that Lamborado LP? The price sticker is still on it ...$2.50. The sales pitch on the jacket is tooting HI-FI. This was the driving, and one for DUI. first recording the Royal Canadians did in this "new" great sound. That 33 RPM record has been around for several years!

There have been no big winners in the Florida lottery during the last several weeks. This has resulted in a big, big jackpot. We heard some folks deciding this week exactly what they were going to do next week AFTER they pick their winning numbers. The folks in our Graceville, FL office are having friends and family call from (7:17 p.m.). out of state requesting they buy some "quick pick" lottery tickets and send them on up. Each one is being told to remember just who purchased the ticket IF it does actually win.

Our daughter Michele and her husband Tom have just returned from a vacation trip to Europe. Needless to say she heard words of caution from Heddy as the date for boarding that plane in Atlanta got closer. I am glad the airliner which caught fire in New York this weekend was after their return. Even though it was a different airline, the anxiety level around here would have gone up a notch or

"JUDGE NOT"

Have you noticed how dif ficult it is for prosecutors nowadays to get a guilty verdict? Even the most ob vious "open and closed" cases often result in a "hung jury." Most people don't want to be judg mental. What did Jesus mean when He said "Judge not?" Is He discouraging discernment between good and evil, truth and error?

PALS Take Trip To ZOO

On March 16, thirty-one Elba High School and elementary students involved in the PALS program enjoyed a trip to the Montgomery Zoo. The students, along with the PALS sponsor Donna Clark, left at 8:00 a.m., arriving at the zoo about 10:00. After taking a group picture and having a quick snack at the picnic area, the students en tered the zoo. They quickly separated to go and find their favorite animals. With two hours to spend at the zoo, there was time to see most of the animals. There were snakes, alligators, tigers, lions, etc. Each student had a favorite. O e student who especially liked the monkeys said that by clapping, they had one o' he monkeys dancing. After seeing the animals, a picnic lunch was shared by all he students before their trip home. Although seeing the animals was a fun thing to do, just being with the other friends on the trip was also a highlight.

The Pressbox By Ricky Mularz, Sports Editor

We pulled out the bats and balls last week, and for the first time ever, it was both Melissa and Melanie that went with Dad to begin softball practice for the season. Melissa has been playing for years and we have practiced thousands of hours hitting and fielding, but Melanie is getting ready for her first season and got in on the action as she threw the ball, stopped a couple of grounders hit by her big sister and hit balls off a tee. Mom helped by serving as an outfielder, but after an hour or two we were all ready for a break, and enjoyed a cool drink of water.

TIGERS CARRY 3-2 RECORD OUT OF AEA BREAK

The Elba Tigers won one and lost one last week in a mini-tournament at Andalusia and will carry a 3-2 record out of the AEA break, heading into the meat of the schedule. While a 3-2 record isn't anything to get excited about, and five games are about a dozen less than most high school teams have played, the wins included decisions over 5A Greenville and 4A T.R. Miller, with the losses coming at the hands of 1A state champion G.W. Long and 5A Andalusia. Hey, maybe the 3-2 record is more impressive

Coach David Lowery was worried about his early-season hitting and his pitching staff prior to the start of the season, and while the Tigers did get blanked 5-0 by G.W. Long, they have hit the ball pretty good in most of their games. The Tigers drilled the ball against Greenville and McKenzie, then stunned a powerful T.R. Miller staff by pushing across 10 runs in Elba's biggest win of the young season. Che Vaughan has provided some early punch with 4 home-runs in five games, and teammates Griffin Shirley, Leray Smedley, Chris Tyson and Charles Bozeman have all been swinging the bat well. As for the pitching staff, the Tiger hurlers have been a pleasant surprise as Jason Smith, Paul Marsh, Jody Johnson and Che Vaughan have all pitched well to help take the pressure off #1 starter

The 3-2 record does prove that the Tigers can win and can once again be contenders for a state title; however, more will be known about Elba in just eight short days, as it plays five games during that eight-day span against such teams as Andalusia, Opp, Ariton and area foes Louisville and Luverne. A lot of questions will be answered in the next eight days, and with a little luck, and a lot of effort, the Tigers could come through with

COUNTY TEAMS ARE NOW PROVEN WINNERS

Just a few short years ago the sport of baseball was a sport that was not offered to the students in the Coffee County School system. After all, baseball was a sport that loses money, and that term will never be popular with athletic directors or school officials. The decision was made to field baseball teams, at all three county schools; however, and in recent years all three schools have developed solid baseball programs that are now on an equal plateau with other 1A and 2A schools across the state. It wasn't easy and the schools have all suffered some lopsided losses along the way, but last year a Zion Chapel student received a baseball scholarship to a junior college, and a number of Kinston players are being recruited this season. The county system is to be commended for offering this opportunity to the students in its schools, and for realizing that there are many more rewards in sports than just the final score on the scoreboard.

SAMS IS STILL HOT BED OF RACING TALENT

I went to the races Saturday night at the South Alabama Motor Speedway, and even though I was bundled up to battle the cold, I still enjoyed the racing action in all seven classes and left convinced that the track has the potential to be a popular place for drivers and fans alike. The .4 mile oval is banked to allow the drivers to reach speeds that make the races competitive, and there isn't a bad seat in the house as all the bleachers are located on the front straight-away that give the fans a view of every inch of the track. I know that many people aren't race fans and will never go out to watch a race, but for those of you that are, or have been race fans, you need to head down to Kinston and watch some of the top local drivers go head to head. The excitement will soon return!
